Date & Venue of the activity : 26.04.2017

Target group (students / staff) : Teaching Staff

Number of Participant : 29

Name of the staff in-charge : Dr. R. J. Powar

A brief report of the activity : The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organised a One Day Faculty Development Programme on "Role of Teacher as Leader, Administrator and Mentor" for the staff members of R.P.D. College on 26th April, 2017. The objective of this programme was to make the teachers to understand their changing role in education system in particular and society in general. The programme was conducted in three different sessions. In the first session the resource person Dr. Roopa Bellad Professor from Jawaharlal Nehru Medical College Belagavi spoke on 'Role of Teacher as Leader' and highlighted how teacher can lead by example in the way they act, speak, and behave. They lead their students through challenging activities and rigorous learning. Then, they take on additional teacher leadership roles inside and outside the classroom.

In Second Session Dr. Padmaja Walvekar, Professor from JNMC, stressed on educational administration system. She focused on proper utilisation of workforce and materials for effective and well-organised teaching and learning in schools and colleges. Administration plays an important role in the efficient functioning of educational institutions and administrators can assess the feedback from the students about their teachers in a more dispassionate manner and work towards improving it. In third session, Dr. Mahantshetti spoke on the mechanism of mentoring and its importance.

Belagavi.

Dear Madam,

This is to thank you for accepting our request to conduct a faculty development program on 26th April 2017 for the staff members. Your expertise and experience in the field of education has helped us to understand the nuances of the roles that teachers play in developing a learner to full potential. The methods used by you were interesting and it made learning meaningful through active participation and interaction. We are very keen to make mentor program an important aspect of the college curriculum and your session on mentorship will help us in that direction.

I once again thank you for accepting our invitation and sharing your time and expertise with us despite your heavy schedule. We look forward to more sharing sessions in the future.

Thank you,

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. (Mrs.) S. P. Surebankar
