A brief report of the activity : The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organised a One Day Faculty Development Programme on "Relevance of Emotional Intelligence in the Teaching Profession" to the teaching staff members of R.P.D. College on 16th September, 2019. The objective of this programme was to understand how Emotional intelligence is important for teachers from higher education and also to know how it helps teachers to face certain stressful situations. The resource person Mrs. Ashwini Belgaonkar, Counsellor R.P.D. College, said Emotional intelligence enhances teaching practices in today's evolving educational world. It helps in building an effective teacher-student relationship. Different kinds of conflicts and misunderstandings between the teacher and the learner can be resolved if teachers are emotionally capable and intelligent. This is vital as the current compound education system demands a teacher to have the excellence of relationship-management for helpful communication with fruitful teaching-learning process.
