ACTION TAKEN REPORT ON STUDENTS' FEEDBACK 2019-20

- Some students opined that the evaluation scheme was not discussed with them. The matter was brought up in the IQAC meeting and a discussion was carried out. IQAC advised the HoDs of all the departments to re-discuss the scheme of evaluation with the students before the commencement of the Semester End Exams.
- Some percentage of respondents opined that the syllabus partially enabled them to improve their knowledge and skill. This matter was also discussed in the IQAC meeting and an initiative was taken to encourage, apart from the ongoing, additional skill-based certificate courses.
- Some of the respondents were unable to get the required books from the library. The same was taken up and discussed in the IQAC meeting and keeping into mind the needs of the students IQAC advised the HoDs to suggest good and better books to encourage great reading, it was also unanimously decided by the IQAC and HoD's to add books in greater number to the already existing stock. In this regard, the librarian was asked to submit a list of the outdated books.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT ON STUDENTS' FEEDBACK
2020-21

As the percentage of students opting for offline mode of teaching-learning is higher, IQAC, keeping in mind the pandemic situation, has proposed the blended mode of teaching. To fulfil the curriculum needs of the students IQAC has also proposed to upload the study materials using various online platforms. The students can also avail the benefit of one-to-one contact with their respective subject teachers to resolve their queries once every fortnight.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT ON ALUMNI FEEDBACK
2020-21

Most of the alumni strongly agreed that the present curriculum is well updated and has incorporated the recent changes in it and they also opined that, the add-on courses would further fill the gaps in the curriculum, keeping this into consideration, IQAC has decided to identify the gaps that exist in the curriculum and would like to have some more add-on courses in the next academic year.
